Champagnes & Sparkling Wines

French Champagnes are made from Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier. Only sparkling wines that come from the prestigious region of France may be called "Champagne". In Spain the sparkler is "Cava", in Italy it is called "Prosecco" and in California, just "Sparkling Wine".

There is a wonderful and unrivaled ceremony and pleasure and magical feeling that surrounds the opening and drinking of any kind of bubbly. A wonderful aperitif, you don't need a special occasion to pop the cork and indulge.

BORTOLUZZI ESTATE WINES

A young Giovanni Bortoluzzi known as “wine ambassador” among the top growers of Friuli, founded the Bortoluzzi Estate in 1981. Giovanni selected a few ideally placed vineyards on the gravelly, mineral enriched deposit of the diverted Isonzo River. The terroir of the 173 acres is highly prized in this privileged winemaking region. The abundant minerals in the soil make for a wine rich in fruity/floral nuances and varietals.

Giovanni is joined by his children, Alessio, assistant winemaker, Alberto, vineyard manager, and Angela, administrative, in bringing to our table a portfolio of finely crafted wines. As a personal friend of the family, our Chef Phil proudly features all of the wines of Bortoluzzi.

From the Winery of B. R. Cohn “Olive Hill” Estate

Founded by Bruce Cohn in 1984, B. R. Cohn Winery is located in the heart of Sonoma Valley.

This small family winery is surrounded by the 9-acre Olive Hill Estate Vineyard where underground natural hot springs and gentle ocean breezes warm soils create a unique microclimate that makes growing conditions ideal for Cabernet Sauvignon. B. R. Cohn produces Chardonnay, Merlot and “SyrCab” from the Sonoma Valley.

The B. R. Cohn estate, in addition to wine, crafts world-class gourmet olive oils from 145 year-old Picholine trees which were imported from France in the mid-1800’s.

Since founding the winery, Cohn, with each vintage, focuses on creating wines that emphasize balance, elegance and consistent high quality.
